3. The Dean Pt. Jawahar Lal Nehru Memorial College, Raipur (CG)

ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 20.6.2006)

The petitioner is a M.B.B.S. graduate and he appeared in the Pre PG Entrance Examination and was qualified to be considered for admission to the P.G. course. On 09.07.2004 counseling was held. As per the petitioner, he had authorized his father to participate in the counseling on his behalf and accordingly, his father participated in the counseling, gave his option to remain in the waiting list. But, this assertion of the petitioner is squarely denied by the respondents in para 10 of the reply filed by them. According to the respondents, the petitioner did not participate in the counseling. There was nothing on record on the basis of which the Court could possibly doubt the integrity of the sworn statement made on behalf of the respondents. The self-serving statement of the petitioner could not be accepted as true and correct. In that view of the matter, granting relief to the petitioner would not arise. Writ petition is, therefore, dismissed. No costs.
